JOHN WILLIAMS MEMORIAL SHOW

Sunday 27th October saw Notts open show take place at the Acacia Centre

I was not fortunate to have known John, however he held various positions at the club and it is with regret we lose another fellow bird man.

An early start for a lot on a cold Sunday morning, particular mention to Jim Noonan who had been judging the Welsh on the Saturday. Around 200 birds entered so some work for the judges, Howard Taylor and Ian Southgate, to get their teeth into.

Five exhibitors contested for the honours in the novice section. John South finishing up triumphant taking 1st 2nd 4th 5th 6th and 7th best Roy Collings took 3rd and 10th with Gary Priest 8th and 9th.

Next up for adjudication were the Champions the Daniel and Speight partnership coming out best Champion and also taking Best Border in show with a nice lightly variegated buff cock.

Mick Lowe took 2nd and 5th with a nice pair of current year birds,

Brian Archer was 3rd with a nice Cinnamon Cliff Britton took 4th 8th and 9th the 4th places a very nice neat Cinnamon hen of type.

Jim Noonan took 6th and 7th with Clear current year birds of nice feather and position.

Burton and Potts took 10th best with a T.P.D. buff cock a nice bird of type.

Nice to see most of the top shelf Clear or Lightly variegated birds all well finished off and all on their day would have been pushing for 1st place.

John Williams wife kindly presented the trophies which was nice to see

So, the end of another show, many thanks to all exhibitors without whom we would not have a show.

Thanks also to everyone who helped, you know who you are and it saves me mentioning people by name only to go and miss someone out!!!
